Mardi Gras! Tuesday

Interment mounts among the Cousins are made for the Mardi Gras celebration. Parents and students are working on ball designs and parade floats while local merchants plan to close Tuesday's activities. Activities officially begin in Bay St. Louis Friday night with the annual Carnival Ball of the Bay St. Louis Association. A secret king and queen will be crowned. The ball will begin at 7:30 p.m. at the Kline Youth Center with benefits to go to the North Central Parent-Teachers Association. The parade will start Tuesday morning at 10 a.m. and will carry the floats through the town. The floats will be decorated with flowers and other items. The parade will end at the beach where King Wallace will meet and toast the crowd. Clarine Hayward.

Seasons is to Carnival Theme

The theme of the St. Rose de Lima Carnival parade is "Seasons," according to Charles Joseph, president of the parade committee. The parade will include Summer, Fall, Winter, and Spring. The parade will start at 10 a.m. and will carry the floats through the town. The floats will be decorated with flowers and other items. The parade will end at the beach where King Wallace will meet and toast the crowd. Clarine Hayward.

J.R. Murphy Lone Bidder On 16th Section Rights

Bids on county equipment occupied the major portion of Tuesday morning's county supervisors meeting when awards were made on a truck for Beat 4 and on the oil, gas and mineral rights on section 16 of the county's 16th Section lands. Beat 5 grader bids were held until Beat 5 Supervisor R. G. Hubbard, absent because of illness, could examine the bids personally. Beat 1 Supervisor Charles Russ presided in Hubbard's absence. Pearson Motor Co., Inc., of Piquette, which last week got the bid on a 1960 Ford-600 model truck, was again selected as lowest and best bidder on a two-ton truck at $2,525.64. Bidding was by Motors, Inc., Bay St. Louis, $2,728.75; and Pittman Ford Co., Poplarville, $2,830. A solitary bid of $9,675 for six years on the entire 645 acres of section 16, township 8 south, range 15 west, was accepted from J. R. Murphy of New Orleans, an independent bidder. Bidding on the Beat 5 heavy-duty grader were Aldridge-Harbour Equipment Co., Inc., Jackson, $21,999.60, with an alternative bid of $22,000.00.

Carnival Garbage Collection Changed

Regular garbage collection dates in Bay St. Louis and Waveland will be changed next week to avoid conflict with the Mardi Gras celebrations. In the south part of Bay St. Louis, pickups normally made on Tuesday will take place Wednesday morning. Tuesday's collection in Waveland will be moved up to Monday because of the holiday.

District 8 Teams Win First Round

Fighting with a determined spirit seldom shown before, their injured ace scorer unable to attain his top form, North Central's Hawks managed to keep a step ahead of Burns and took the opening game of the B-BB South Mississippi Tournament 55-49 last night in Bay High's gym. They are now assured of the long-cherished spot in the state play-offs. Friday at 7 p.m. the Hawks will tackle the winner of Osyka vs. Raymond who play at 7 p.m. today. It was a nip and tuck affair throughout, but the Necaise boys clinched the battle with a last minute spurt. Burns came off the floor in the final period and with two minutes left tied up the game at 49-49 when Douglas Necaise stole the ball, dribbled down field and gave it to Barney who hit the bucket. John came through with the clincher when Burns missed their turn at the net. North Central couldn't hit their best stride in the first half and appeared to be trying too hard. Three times their passes were intercepted by the Burns squad who displayed a beautiful passing attack but who could not match the powerful down-court marches of the Hawks. The fracas was witnessed by an overflow crowd of some 1,200 gone-wild fans who kept a frightened bird bating his head against the rafters of the gym with their roars for every field goal when the going was tough. At one point Douglas Necaise, playing with a patch over a forehead injury that required five stitches sustained in a recent game with Gulfport's Commodores, collided head-on with a Burns player and Hawk fans held their breath but the stalwart Necaise laid walked calmly to the foul line and sunk his free throw. Playing a fine game throughout, Barney was top scorer with 23. Douglas got 12, John 9, Wayne 8 and Berlin 4. For Burns it was Edward Tallos with 18 and Ronald Russum 17. Score by quarters: North C. 14 10 17 14 - 55 Burns 13 12 13 11 - 49 Spectators witnessed another thriller in the nightcap when Improve trounced Sandy Hill 63-68. The game was closer than the final score indicates, the spirited Sandy Hill lads, although trailing throughout, never gave up until the final buzzer. The difference was a speedy improve forward, Ronnie Joe Gilmore, who hit the bucket for 33 points. Displaying some fancy footwork and tricky shots, Sandy Hill's Stafford Walker hit for 25.

What Did You Do? 68 Here Respond For Duty

Mississippi's National Guard had its test alert last night. Already we have heard derogatory remarks about the exercise. They were not critical in any constructive sense. It will take time and more exercises for any such project to work with even near perfection. After all perfection, while striven for by some, is attained by none. Our complaint is not at the National Guard, locally or elsewhere. Undoubtedly last night's exercise COULD have been better done; personnel COULD have assembled faster. Next time they probably will.

Did you help, Buster?

Eight blasts of the siren at 6:10 p.m. last night sent hurriedly dressing national guardsmen to their long awaited "operation minuteman" practice alert.

Squealing tires turning on the driveway of the new armory of the 134th Transportation "Co., light truck, division of the state guard brought 80 per cent, or 68 men out of a total strength of 84, of the local guard to their posts.

All personnel assigned to the unit were required to report immediately at the H Hour sounding of the siren. Fifty-nine guardsmen reported during the first hour of the alert and nine more during the second hour.

Commanded by Capt. Irvin S. Kingston, the local unit issued equipment and posted guards at the Bay St. Louis roll bridge, City Hall, Courthouse, fire station, Necaise Avenue, and offices of Southern Bell, Mississippi Power Co. and Coast Electric. Additional members of the unit began maintenance checks of the company's equipment and attended refresher courses on alert and unit mobilization.

Equipment was available for all members of the unit who reported, according to Master Sgt. Wilbert J. Adam, even though the six 30-30 rifles and four .45 caliber automatic pistols recently stolen from the armory have not been recovered. No report has been received yet from agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Adam said.

Unit guards were in position until 9:30 p.m. when the alert was dismissed.

Adam said the alert was considered very successful for this unit since there were members from Gulfport, Pass Christian, Kline, Clermont Harbor, New Orleans, Logtown and Waveland, as well as Bay St. Louis who reported.

Date and time of the statewide "operation minuteman" was set by Gov. Ross R. Barnett as commander in chief of the Mississippi guard and was coordinated through state military communications with the assistance of the highway patrol and other news media.

Approximately 10,000 guardsmen throughout the state reported during the three-hour alert.

MODERN-DAY MINUTEMEN — First Sgt. Henry Prevot checks equipment item lists with guardsman Bill Carbone as Master Sgt. Wilbert J. Adam, at desk, completes forms to dispatch a truck which will carry local guardsmen to their posts in last night's "operation minuteman" practice alert.

Waterfront is Meeting Topic

Beautification of the entire waterfront from Bayou Caddy to the Jordan River will be discussed at a county-wide meeting at 7:30 p.m. next Saturday, March 5 at Waveland Town Hall, Mayor Garfield Ladner announced today. Participating will be the host town's council, county board of supervisors, Bay St. Louis City Commission Council, Chamber of Commerce, Jaycees and other civic organizations. Anyone interested is invited, the mayor said, noting that town council will recess from its regular session Tuesday night until Saturday.

Dogs Attack Carswell Child In Waveland

Little Charlotte Carswell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Carswell of Waveland, was bitten by one of two dogs attacking her Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 17. She was returning home following a Brownie meeting at Waveland school when the dogs, owned by Charles Miller of Coleman Ave., knocked her down and dragged her a short distance. She was treated by a doctor for tooth wounds in the back of her head. Both dogs are now being held for observation in the kennels of a Mississippi veterinarian.

Camellia Show Winners Listed

Dr. Walter C. Hava of Waveland collected blue ribbons on 49 blossoms entered in the annual Bay-Waveland Garden Club camellia show last weekend to walk off with the sweepstakes award in horticulture. Runner-up in this division were Mr. and Mrs. Duralde Claiborne, also of Waveland, who won blue ribbons on 22 entries. Mrs. Dan Russell Jr., who won top honors in the Sildell and Gulfport Mrs. Camellia Society shows earlier this month, continued to pace the artistic arrangement division of the show, winning the show's tri-color award.

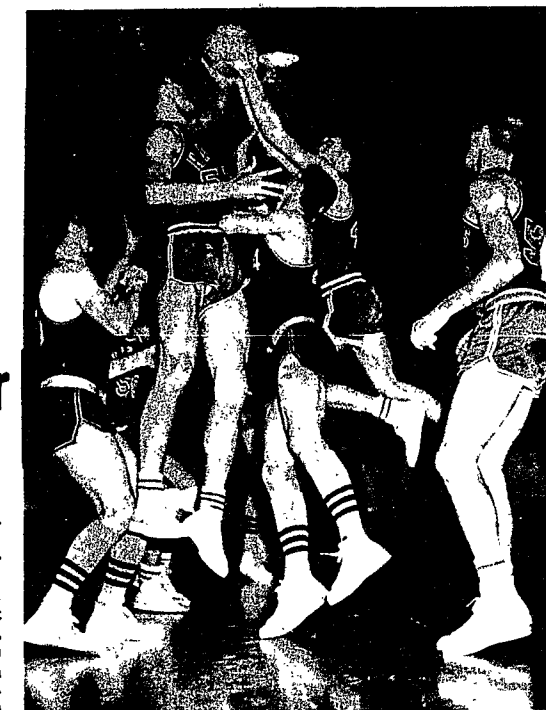

She received first place blue ribbons on her arrangements in Class I, One, Refined by Fire, which called only for red camellias, and in Class VII, Gems of Purview Ray, which featured camellias in a jewel box or small chest with jewelry as an accessory.

The junior tri-color winner was Kathleen Schafer whose entry also took first in Class II, Nature's Sculpture.

Judges, all accredited by the American Camellia Society, were Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Ratliff of Bogalusa, La., and Mrs. R. B. Vaughn, Mrs. D. R. Reagan, Mrs. E. D. O'Mara and Mrs. Emory Sadler, all of Biloxi. They were entertained at a luncheon Saturday by the club at the home of Dr. and Mrs. James Evans.

TRI-COLOR ENTRY — This arrangement made by Mrs. Dan M. Russell Jr. for Class VII, depicting Gems of Purview Ray, won the tri-color ribbon as the outstanding arrangement in the Bay-Waveland Garden Club's camellia show.

TEAMWORK — North Central's Donald and Douglas Necaise team up to control a rebound Wednesday night to help the Hawks eke out a 55-49 win over Burns in the opening game of the South Mississippi B-BB Tournament at Bay High.

New Hospital Opens Hope for More Blood

Methods of reaching into a new field of donors, particularly in view of the early opening of the new Hancock General Hospital, which will enable blood to be kept locally, were discussed at a dinner meeting of the Hancock County Blood Bank Monday night to kick off its next drawing.

The drawing is scheduled for April 27 when President Eugene Dillman expressed the hope for a better showing than the last time when only a handful of persons showed up at Kline.

Dr. Frank McKinley suggested that some of the problem of keeping an adequate supply might be averted if more emphasis were put on replacing blood and getting it off a voluntary basis. Dr. Andrew Martindale Jr. observed that several months after a person has received blood he is not likely to be as grateful as he was at the time when he needed it. When the new hospital opens, blood can be kept locally without having to store it at the Ochsen Foundation Hospital in New Orleans and arrangements probably will be worked out with neighboring hospitals in Mississippi to interchange supplies, Martindale continued. To the inquiry of Mrs. Thelma Tudy about trying to draw new blood, he said he thought he could guarantee some new blood from the recently organized Jaycees.

The Rev. Celestine Pfannenstiel of Church of the Annunciation at Kline said the blood bank should not be discouraged about the small response in the rural sections even though much of the blood is used for patients from those areas. Many of the people are anemic and their blood could not be used, he said, but predicted greater success with the age that is just beginning to donate. People must also be educated to giving, he asserted, citing fear as one deterrent.

None Seriously Hurt in Three Mishaps Sunday

No serious injuries resulted in three separate county auto accidents Sunday in which two Maryland women were hospitalized.

Nelson Parker, Negro, of Gulfport, now in Hancock County Jail, was charged with driving while intoxicated, leaving the scene of the accident and driving without a driver's license after Highway Patrolmen Fred Curet and William Kenny picked him up on the Bayou La Croix road where he had fled after crashing head-on into a 1957 Ford about 1 p.m. on U. S. 90 about a half mile west of Lakeshore Road.

Injured were Mrs. Elmer J. Woolery, 68, and her sister, Mrs. Estina Sigmund, both of Baltimore, Md., passengers in the Ford driven by Elmer J. Woolery; and Louis Ford, Negro, of

The People Pay

Of the many agencies of the federal government few, if any, are as highly regarded by the public generally as is the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Nevertheless the concept of the FBI is contrary to the most elemental political views professed by the great majority of us, and in practice the bureau sticks to at least one attitude that is compatible only with a dictatorship.

We doubt that this agency could be as effective over the short run without its use of secrecy. When our friends control it, that seems fine, but what if those in control are not our friends? Ask Poplarville.

Practice has shown that secrecy is the tool of the power grabbers; that in secrecy's absence the public good is a more important criterion. The FBI has the reputation of doing a fine job; it is also one of the worst enemies of the public's right to know what their hired help are doing.

If in doubt, try getting news releases, while still news, from the bureau. We have.

Bureaucracy Also

This paper as of yesterday was without a copy of the sea food bill passed, without dissent, by the Mississippi House of Representatives on Tuesday. From the wire service reports the bill had been heavily amended, in many respects as urged by a delegation from Hancock County.

Notwithstanding the amendments the Echo feels the supporters of the bill failed to protect the public, and it's the public not the industry they are supposed to represent. We still want to know who advocates that regulations and rates of railroads be made by railroad officials. The seafood bill gives such authority to sea food industry officials, in fact, requires it.

State Farmers Set Record Carrying Out Conservation

More Mississippi farmers carried out conservation practices on their farms in 1959 than in any year since 1952, according to E. A. Porter, chairman of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation State Committee.

Thomas Holden Wins Promotion

Thomas E. Holden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Holden, Route 1, Piquette, recently was promoted to specialist four in Germany, where he is a member of the 4th Armored Division.

Specialist Holden, a mechanic in Company D of the division's 37th Armor in Crafshelm, entered the Army in December 1958, and completed basic training at Fort Hood, Tex. The 23-year-old soldier, whose wife, Shirley, is with him in Germany, was graduated from Bay High School in 1956.

Participation in the 1959 Agricultural Conservation Program represents approximately 27 per cent of the total farms in Mississippi. This is an increase of 12 per cent over the number that participated in 1958, also over 1957, and 14 per cent over 1956. Farms used that in two counties in the state, 30 per cent of the farms participated in the 1959 program. In two other counties, 20 per cent of the farms participated.

Land and water conservation practices performed by Mississippi farmers under the 1959 program included the planting of pine trees, performance of timber stand improvement, construction of livestock water ponds and erosion control dams, construction of ditches, establishment and improvement of permanent pasture, application of lime and the planting of winter cover crops.

The county committee is now receiving requests from farmers for cost-sharing through the 1960 Agricultural Conservation Program. Farmers who wish to participate in the 1960 program in Hancock County should contact the ASC county office in the Agricultural Building at Bay St. Louis and file their request for cost-sharing on approved practices.

Time to end prohibition farce

If for no other reason than the sake of morality and decency it is time the prohibition farce in Mississippi is ended.

The recent fiasco in Harrison County is an example of the moral climate the state has built by labeling whiskey sales illegal and then taxing them 18%.

There four constables closed down operation of three wholesale whiskey distributors for about 10 days.

Excuse was that they were opposed to a monopoly and price-fixing on wholesale sales established by the three.

They cited the recent increase in whiskey price by these wholesalers Dec. 1 at a time when there was no corresponding increase in distillery prices or taxes.

We suspect that increase had more behind it than mere is the eye.

We suspect also there is more behind the move of the Harrison County constables than meets the eye. We hardly believe that indignation over monopoly and price fixing was all that was involved, particularly in view of the fact that operations are now reported normal.

In almost one-third of Mississippi's

82 counties whiskey is sold openly across bars and in package stores.

In the others it can be had if you know the right person.

In our state capitol of Jackson delivery service to hotels is maintained by bootleggers in adjoining Rankin County.

One hotel within walking distance of the House and Senate chambers, where our legislature is now gathered in biennial session, has established a swank club in which lavish bars and experienced bartenders are a major attraction.

There is now pending in the legislature a local option bill that would end the farce. It will, as usual, have tough going.

At the last regular session a similar bill was prepared by Sen. George Owen of Pontotoc County, an ardent and life-long practicing dry.

Owen prepared the bill after a state-wide survey by a committee of which he was a member and said frankly that despite his own feelings as a "dry" he believed local option was the only answer to our situation.

There is indication that the present local option bill will be tied to teacher pay increases. Grounds will be that the state does not have money to meet the necessary and additional revenue from sales in counties that vote to make them possible.

That, too, is immoral. There is no stronger evidence the state for adequate revenue than this newspaper.

But teachers should not be pawns to force through a local option bill.

That question should be left to by our people and legislators on its own merits.

Questions involved, we believe these:

Do we want to continue to satisfy the atmosphere of indecency and immorality we have created by taxing 10% black market tax on 8% sales tax on the illegal traffic?

Or do we want to clear the sphere and return to a moral climate by legalizing it on a local option with licensed dealers operating under state controls?

When we remember that almost many bootleggers in dry Mississippi have been prosecuted for not paying taxes on whiskey as have been selling it we can't see any argument against the latter.

Letters to My Favorite Prayer

Editor, Sea Coast Echo:

World like to comment as to the robbery of the local Armory; since only five arms and ammunition were taken, having passed up other articles of value, goes to prove the possible dangerous potential for future use of these weapons and ammunition.

I do not think this was done by any local characters, or am I just being too optimistic?

Possibly some organized gang connected with the foreign arms shipments to Cuba, or perhaps even worse, if connected with all this racial stir up in our otherwise peaceful towns and cities.

These are truly trying times, not only for our officers of the law, but for all our citizens who wish to remain alert and well informed, to the sinister and subversive forces so rampant in our many phases of life as it is today.

Speaker for Mission Day At Seminary is Announced

A former New Guinea missionary, Father Clarence Howard, S.V.D., will deliver the mission-theme sermon during a solemn high mass at the Divine St. Augustine's Seminary at 10 a.m. Sunday, March 6.

An alumnus of this seminary and former editor of St. Augustine's Catholic Messenger, Father Howard was missionary to New Guinea in 1951, where he spent four years. At present he is superior of St. Benedict's Mission in Dallas, La.

New Guinea, an island in the South Pacific, is slightly larger than Louisiana and Texas combined. Its physical characteristics make it one of the most difficult missions of the Catholic Church. Among the missionaries on the large island are 179 Divine Word Missionaries from 13 nations, 58 of whom are from the United States, to care for 143,200 people.

The utensils, dress, etc., of these people will be on view in a typical New Guinea hut to be exhibited here on Divine Word Mission Day. Visitors will be able to enter the hut and inspect the various articles which have been received directly from the missions in New Guinea.

Other mission territories which will be featured at the March 6 Mission Day are Africa,

India, Indonesia, Latin America, Japan, China, and the U. S. Southern Missions.

National Engineers' Week

Mississippi Power Company proudly pays tribute to the professional engineers of this area on the occasion of National Engineers' Week February 21-27.

The history of the engineering profession since the turn of the century has been one in which the engineer assumes an ever greater responsibility for the nation's productive efforts. In 1900 there were 255 industrial workers for each engineer. By 1955 the number of industrial workers per engineer had shrunk to 55. With the increase of engineers employed by industry the purchasing power of the individual worker has shown a striking increase. The growth of the engineering profession is one measure of the over-all growth of 20th Century technology and industrial achievement.

National Engineers' Week is celebrated annually by the Society of Professional Engineers in cooperation with industry, schools, and other engineering societies to bring to the public a recognition of the vital functions of American engineers in our civilian and defense economy. The theme of the Week for 1959 is "Engineering's Great Challenge—The 1960's."

MARDI GRAS DAY PROCLAMATION

Since Mardi Gras Day is the eve of the Lenten Season and has been observed for many years in this section of our land, and since our people are entitled to recreation and recess for at least one day from their worldly cares, it is fitting at this time that we observe Mardi Gras by taking part in the festivities and pleasures of the day, and so in consideration of the custom, therefore, be it

Claude Baye, 17, and two juveniles, ages 14 and 15, whose names were withheld, were released on bond and the case referred to the FBI for further investigation.

Red Cross Unit Is Briefed on Fund Raising

Paul Ostborg, field director of the American Red Cross at Keesler Air Force Base, met with officials of the Hancock County chapter and Russell J. Elliott, newly appointed fund drive chairman, Wednesday morning to outline plans for the annual campaign which gets under way next month.

Ostborg pointed out that the county had received in hurricane disaster aid many times the value of its contributions but said it was not a matter of "value received" for the money but is a matter of the whole country uniting now to help future disaster areas. "That is what this country is based on," he said.

Kenneth W. Pepperdine, regional fund chairman, said this year's goal is $3,615 of which $1,904 is retained by the local chapter and $1,713 will go to the national organization. He asked for support of local civic groups inasmuch as more than 50 per cent of the campaign fund will stay in the county.

Elliott suggested erection of a barometer showing the amount of money received and percentage of the goal which J. Cyril Glover, chapter chairman, said he would ask City Commission Council to consider.

Another meeting was set tentatively for Monday when the drive chairman is expected to announce his committee heads and captains.

Hawkettes Lose
With three first string forwards out with flu and a top guard playing with a broken hand, North Central's Hawkettes were eliminated from the South Mississippi B-BB girls playoffs last night in Magee by Center Hill 68-27.

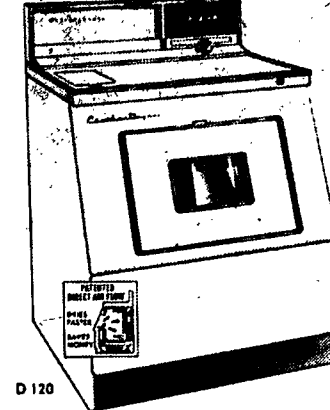

Top scoring ace Bonnie Sue Peterson played about two minutes but was benched by the virus as was Janell Lader. Bertie Cameron, also suffering with flu, played most of the game but was off form. Suffering with a broken hand received last week in the tournament at Perkinson, guard Dorothy Stockstill played most of the game but could not cope with a powerful 6 ft. 2 Center Hill pivot. This winds up the season for the Hawkettes.

4-H Driver Training Plan Outlined to County People

Assistant County Agent John Smith and Mrs. Edward Le Vasseur, president of the Wave-land Home Demonstration Club, represented Hancock County at a meeting of volunteer adult leaders for 4-H automotive care training at Laurel last week.

This county is not yet participating in the program which was launched in 1957, district agents selecting one county each on a trial basis. For more counties were added in 1958 with an enrollment of 129 boys and 31 girls. For the three years of operation, the counties have trained 470 boys and 82 girls.

M. A. Rouse, assistant state 4-H club leader, explained the program for which Mississippi is serving as a pilot state in exploring the possibilities of the 4-H project. The program is offered to all counties in the state this year. Its purpose is through the 4-H organizations to learn and practice automotive care, highway safety, skidball driving, economical operation, automotive fundamentals and good automotive housekeeping.

To be eligible, one must be a bona fide 4-H member between 14 and 20 years of age on Jan. 1, be enrolled in the automotive project and have access to an automobile, pickup truck or other type of vehicle.

Various state officials also addressed the meeting discussing aspects of safety and training in proper driving habits as well as highway hazards.

Softball League Eyes Over Rule Change

He pointed out that each team had 15 players and if in teams, the league would have 150 men. He said there were that many. He spoke in favor of being allowed to get out of the county to help balance the books for closer com-against anything proposed to help out or two teams, declaring members should work for betterment of the league as a whole.

Buddy Pittalo moved and Curtis Mathers seconded that the matter be tabled until Mar. 2 and the motion won by a majority vote.

Discussed also was the Youth Center club, other teams having been told that teenagers should only play for the Center. Opinion was that all teams should be on an equal basis.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

On HURRICANES AND ASSOCIATED PROBLEMS IN HANCOCK, HARRISON AND JACKSON COUNTIES, MISS.

Pursuant to Public Law 71, 84th Congress, 1st session, (approved 15 June 1960), the District Engineer will conduct survey investigations in the coastal area of Mississippi to determine possible means of preventing or minimizing loss of life and damage to property resulting from hurricanes.

In order that the required report might fully cover the matter, a public hearing will be held in the BILOXI COMMUNITY HOUSE, EAST PEACH STREET AT ELMER STREET, BILOXI.

LEGAL NOTICES

MISSISSIPPI, AT 10:00 A. M. CENTRAL STANDARD TIME ON TUESDAY, 15 MARCH 1960.

Section 2 of the Act authorizing the study reads as follows: "Sec. 2.-Such survey, to be made under the direction of the Chief of Engineers, shall include the securing of data on the behavior and frequency of hurricanes, and the determination of methods of forecasting their paths and improving warning services, and of possible means of preventing loss of human lives and damages to property, with due consideration of the economics of proposed breakwaters, seawalls, dikes, dams, and other structures, warning services or other measures which might be required."

The purpose of the survey report will be to determine whether improvements for hurricane protection in the area would be economically justified, that is, whether the damages prevented would exceed the cost of the improvements. The report will also consider questions of evacuation, zoning regulations, and improved construction standards as a means of reducing damages.

If the survey reveals that protection would be so reported to Congress. Federal participation in the cost of protective works could not be undertaken unless authorized by Congress.

All interested parties are invited to be present or represented at the public hearing, including representatives of Federal, State, county and municipal agencies, and those of commercial, industrial, civic, highway, railroad, flood control and storm protection interests, and property owners concerned. They will be afforded full opportunity to express their views concerning the need for protection of the area from damages caused by hurricanes and the character and extent of improvements desired. Sponsors of improvements are urged to present factual material bearing upon the economic justification for hurricane protection. Opposing interests, if any, are also urged to state the reasons for their position.

Oral statements will be heard, but for accuracy of record all important facts and arguments should be submitted in writing, as the records of the hearing will
